

GEORG BROE (1923-1998)

was a Danish visual artist working in the surrealist tradition. From the sixties and on he regularly exhibited his works at the well-known exhibition Copenhagen space Charlottenborg, usually as a member of the artists' groupings Rosa and The Surrealists, among other places. - One speciality in his visual language consists of the women's shapes which have become long, "thread-like" formations (with a term he coined himself) and which are encountered in the most incredible variations.

This site at archive.org is meant to be a permanent place for preserving a substantial selection of his works. In my young days I was taken away by the pictures, and later I was lucky enough to get to know the man. There is no unified physical collection at present, only privately owned items which from time to time appear at international auctions.

Please scroll down this document for Main Gallery. You may supplement with the two "Bonus galleries". Remaining "Bonus" items concern various documentation in Danish.

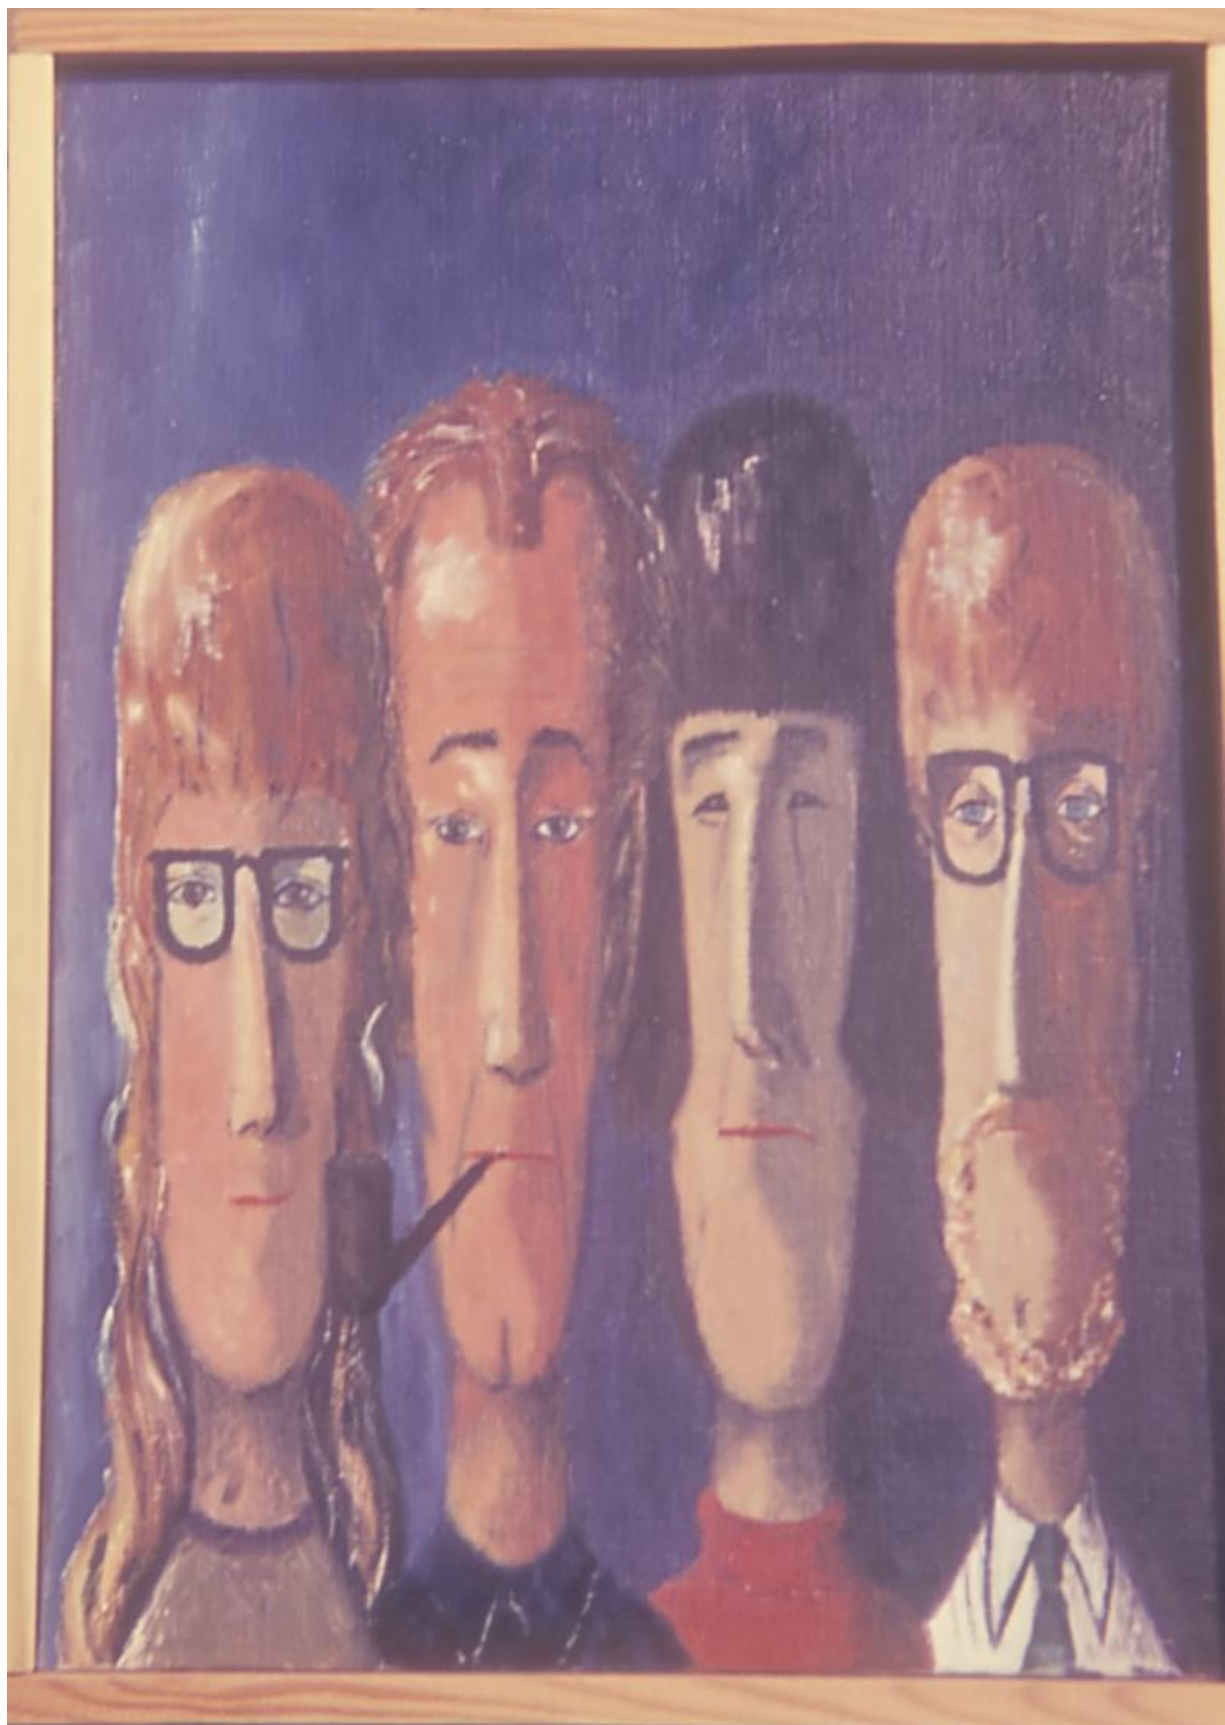

The "Technical Manual" is for those wishing to go into details of sources and context. And you can contact me at www.intuitivemusic.dk/intuitive/imapil.htm
